TESTIMONIALS

Hi Amudha,

This is the kind of testing we wanted as regression testing. Thank you so much for finding this issue. We would have been in so much trouble if we would have gone like this.
I just want to recognize the issue that you found today and how critical it is for our launch today. We're fixing it for tonight's load.

Hi Kavitha,

I really don't know who Amudha's manager. I have worked with her a lot on edoc and she has always been through with all the testing and the products that she is working on.
Please recognize her effort and good work to her manager.

Hi Amudha,

THANK YOU for pulling this together! This is a great comprehensive document – it looks like something we would find in Knowledge Management J
Thank you again for this. It will be very helpful for old and new team members.
